

Dear colleagues,

We have the pleasure to invite you to a seminar/workshop on

Critical and reflexive interculturality in study abroad

by Prof. Fred Dervin from the University of Helsinki

on Monday the 10th December 2018 at Aarhus University.

Seminar/workshop Description: This seminar/workshop introduces the important topic of study abroad and interculturality. With a history of over 50 years, interculturality in study abroad has experienced many shifts in the way it is ‘done’ and problematized. Following a short review of the field, current, more critical and reflexive approaches to interculturality in this specific context are introduced. Concrete examples of initiatives in Europe and China illustrate the talks.

Programme:

10.15 – 10.20	Welcome and presentation
10.20 – 11.15	Talk and discussion – Conceptual part
11.15 – 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 – 12.20	Talk and discussion – Towards critical and reflexive interculturality
12.20 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00 – 14.00	Concrete examples: Implementing critical and reflexive interculturality in international education

Fred Dervin is a Professor of Multicultural Education at the University of Helsinki, Finland. He also holds other professorships in Australia, Canada, China, Luxembourg and Malaysia and has widely published on identity, interculturality and mobility/migration in different languages.

Venue: Aarhus University, Nobelparken, Jens Chr. Skous Vej 4, 8000 Aarhus C, Building 1481, Room 366.

Target group: University (college) teachers and trainers/educators.

Registration: Please send an e-mail to contactpoint@ecml.dk. Limited places, first come, first served.

Deadline for registration: Tuesday the 4th of December 2018.